EDINBURGH

CULTURE

Edinburgh is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Europe and visited by millions of people every year. Home to many of Scotland's best museums, and famous historical sights.

ATTRACTIONS

Discover the history of the Scottish Royal Family with tours of Edinburgh Castle, built nearly 1000 years ago, and the Royal Mile, a medieval street which was previously the bode of Scottish nobility and now an attractive luxury shopping destination.

GLASGOW

CULTURE

Known for its vibrant cultural scene, stunning architecture, and rich history, Glasgow offers amazing museums and easy access to amazing destinations to explore.

ATTRACTIONS

Wander through the lush green spaces of Glasgow Green or the Botanic Gardens, take in panoramic city views from the historic Necropolis, or admire the stunning collections at the Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum

STIRLING

CULTURE

Stirling, often called the “Gateway to the Highlands,” is steeped in history and charm. Home to an iconic Castle and historic monuments, it offers a glimpse into Scotland’s rich past.

ATTRACTIONS

Step back in time with a visit to Stirling Castle, once the home of Scottish kings and queens, or climb the Wallace Monument to learn about the legendary hero William Wallace while enjoying stunning views of the countryside.

LOCH LOMOND

CULTURE

Loch Lomond, set within Scotland's first national park, is a breathtaking destination of sparkling waters and rugged mountains.

ATTRACTIONS

Take a scenic cruise or try adventurous water sports on Loch Lomond, Scotland's largest loch. Enjoy panoramic views of the surrounding mountains on one of the area's scenic walking trails, or visit the area's nearby aquarium.

REVIEWS

"Just had such a lovely time. It was like one family by the end. The staff were amazing. Everyone was so friendly. We've been on a lot of programmes and this one I really enjoyed. Also the weather held out which was lucky!! Loved that you really laid into the Scottish side of it"

"Well planned and thoughtful. There was something for everyone to enjoy."

"The location was fabulous, the food was by and large excellent, the kids program was a real benefit, and the staff in particular - both the Hotel, and KS staff - were excellent."

"Burns night was an incredible event"

"Overall it was fabulous. The effort and passion that went in was very evident."
